

Felicia Farber

Felicia Farber is an award-winning author and attorney in North Jersey who regularly speaks and writes on the legal dangers of mixing teen/tween sexting and cyberbullying with social media. Her debut young adult novel ICE QUEEN has won 11 awards, including First Place for Young Adult fiction. Felicia has been featured on numerous blogs and podcasts and regularly shares her expertise on the serious consequences of electronic bullying and harassment, presenting to schools, book clubs, and the legal community.